MURDER CHARGE Two Girls To Stand Trial

WOMAN'S DEATH IN CHRISTCHURCH

Showing no sign of emotion, Pauline Yvonne Parker, aged 16, and Juliet Marion Hulme, aged 15 years and nine months, left the dock in the Magistrate's Court at 5.25 p.m. yesterday after Mr Raymond Ferner, S.M., had committed them to the Supreme Court for trial on a joint charge of murdering Honora Mary Parker at Christ-church on June 22.

No plea was taken from the two accused before they were committed for trial.

The case for the prosecution began at 10 a.m. and 17 witnesses were called, including Mrs Hulme, mother of the younger accused. About 100 persons, mostly women, occupied all the seating accommodation in the Courtroom immediately the doors were opened, many of them having waited for some time in the rain.

Bach accused girl was seated on a chair in a separate small dock in the middle of the Courtroom, the docks being pushed close together. After they were charged, counsel asked permission for them to be seated. While they were waiting for chairs to be brought, they leaned on the edges of the docks, facing the public and smiling and chatting. During the hearing they frequently smiled and whispered to each other.

The Crown Prosecutor (Mr A. W. Brown), with om was Mr P. T. Mahon, conducted the prosecution. T. A. Gresson and Mr B. McClelland appeared Juliet Hulme. Dr. A. L. Haslam and Mr J. A. cks appeared for Pauline Parker.

cks appeared for Pauline Parker.

An inquest into the death of Honora Parker was held in junction with the hearing of the case for the prosecution.

"The verdict on the death will be withheld meantime I the inquest is further adjourned sine die," said the gistrate as Coroner.

Counsel objected to the admission of some photographs. Magistrate held they were admissible at this stage, but steed that the objections by counsel be noted.

Magistrate limitime McDonald member which git was wearing which age, police photographs, said of the coats produced, but they were locally age to the coats produced, but they were locally age to the coats produced, but they were held to be coats produced, but they were locally age to the coats produced, but they were local minist to bloom discounting the coats of the coats produced, but they were local minist to bloom of the coats of the co

the home im. She bies, She

ANNUAL MEETING OF RACING CONFERENCE. land Racing Conference, presiding at the opening him are Mr W. Claud Motion, vice-president (1

ting and sald she was writ. When the me on the Monday Mowth nome on the Monday Mowth nome on the Monday Mowth nome on the Monday Mowth now the Monday Monday Mowth now the Monday Monday Mowth now the Monday Mowth now the Monday Monday any ming to that: She senied to tate and Mr Perry saked us if would mind leaving the room whill had a talk to her. We thought seen with the senies of murdering her mother and wa her she need not say anything. I said: "Would you like to tell me hampende". She said: "No. But still do not wish to, say why a mines my mother, you tell Juliet that you that you that you that you that you the young that was nother? "A: She knew nothing about it. As far as I know she believed what I far as I know she believed with I far as I know she believed with the young that you have you h

Economist Discusses Trading Banks' Advance To Governmen

the path. I saw the brick and the chirg which are shown in one of chirg which are shown in one of the chiral transparence of the