MURDER CHARGE Hearing Of Evidence Completed

ADDRESSES TO JURY TODAY

The trial of Pauline Yvonne Parker, aged 16, and Juliet Marion Hulme, aged 15 years and 10 months, was continued in the Supreme Court yesterday before Mr Justice Adams and the jury.

The Crown called medical evidence in rebuttal of that brought by the defence in support of its plea of insanity, and all the evidence was completed by 4.40 p.m.

After discussion with the foreman of the jury and counsel, his Honour adjourned the hearing until 9.30 a.m. today.

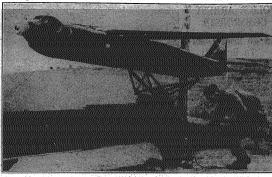

Counsel for the defence and the Crown Prosecutor will address the jury this morning and his Honour will sum up.

they not have had some on for thinking they were —Because they had a slight to Shakespeare? I do to the things he did, ey?—I must reject that combut I agree their ideas had a ndation in fact.

The accused have pleaded not guilty to a charge they murdered Honora Mary Parker, mother of accused Parker, on June 22 at Christchurch.

The Crown Prosecutor (Mr A. W. Brown), and him Mr P. T. Mahon, is appearing for the Crown.

Ker in represented by Dr. A. L. Haslam and Mr. W. Brown and Hard and the second of the second o

Crown Evidence In Rebuttal

is the dominant personality two?—Would you define

Water Storage is Still CRITICALLY LOW

POWER SAVINGS and RESTRICTIONS are Still Very Necessary

Between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Every Day, use of All Electric Radiators and Domestic Water Heaters is PROHIBITED.

PUBLICITY IN BRITAIN

